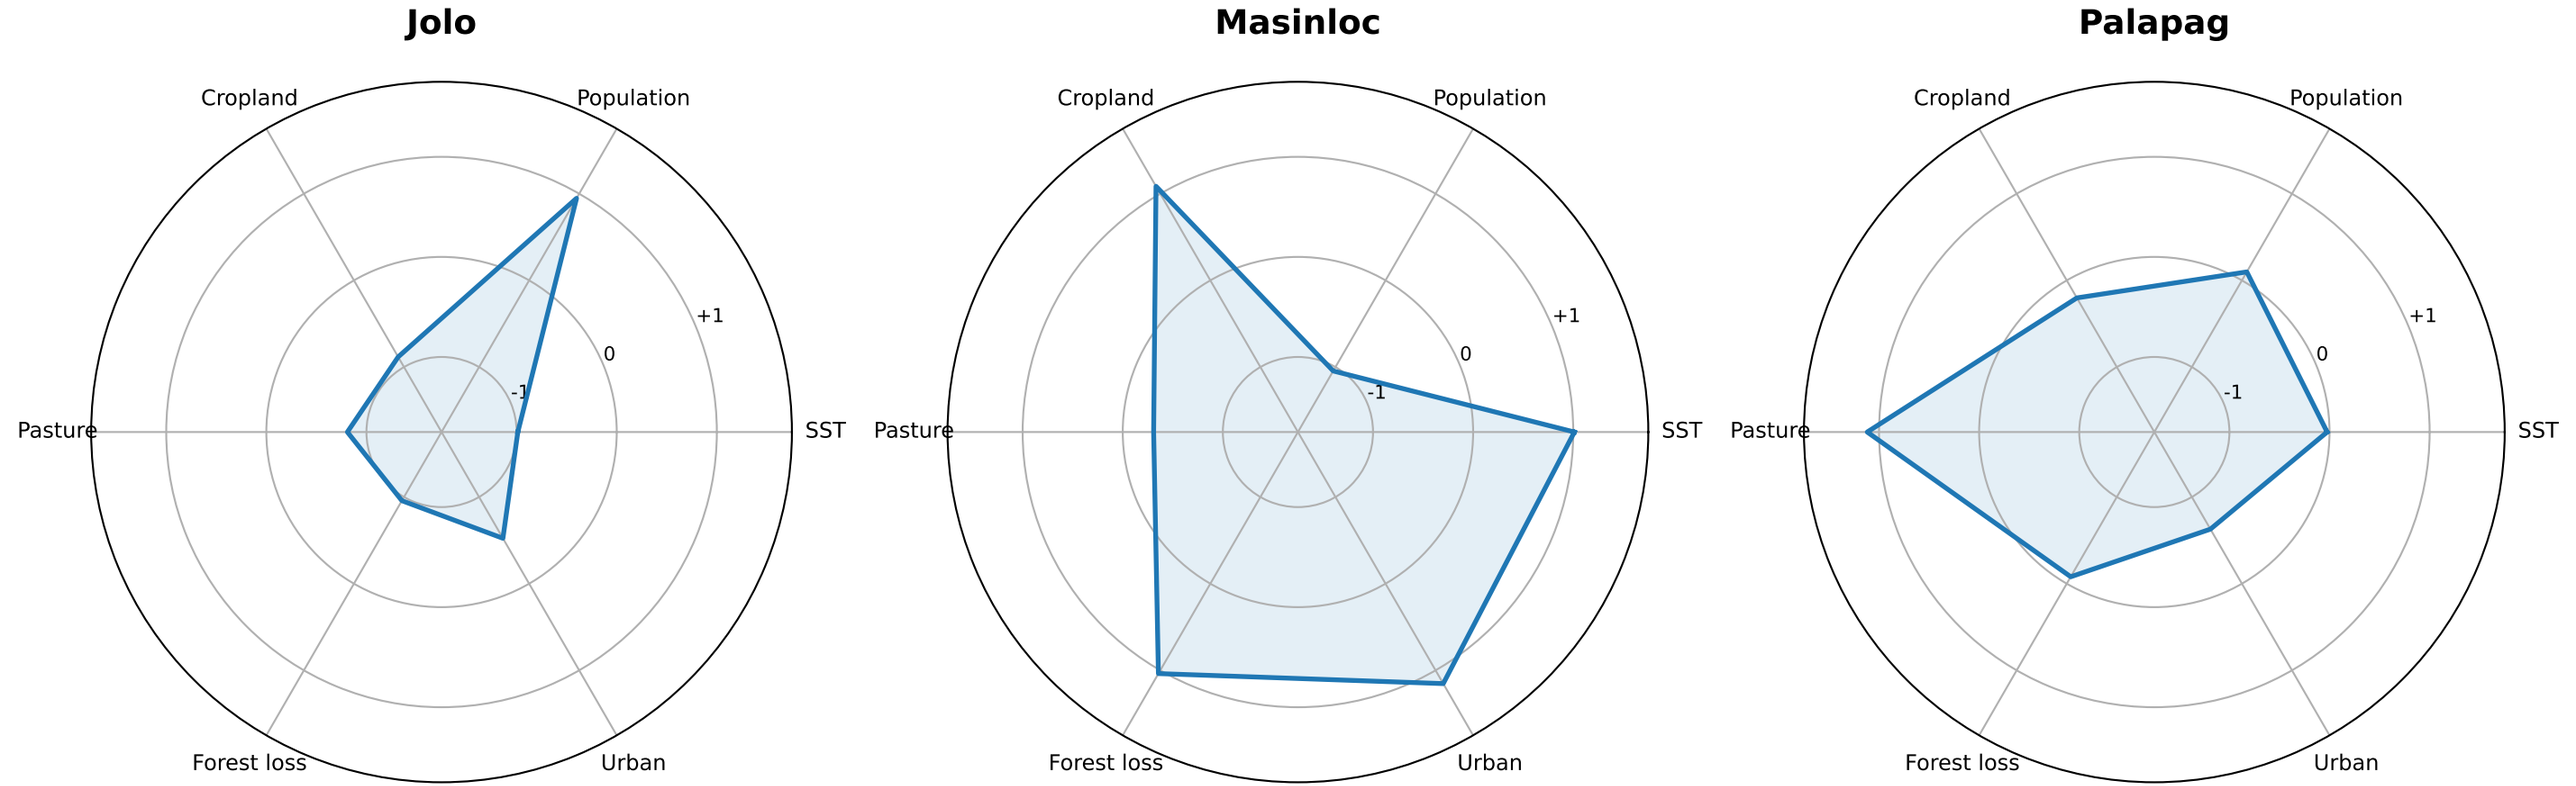
Site-specific historical environmental-change profiles



Axes show independently standardized cross-site changes. Polygon size/area is descriptive only and must not be interpreted as a composite pressure score.