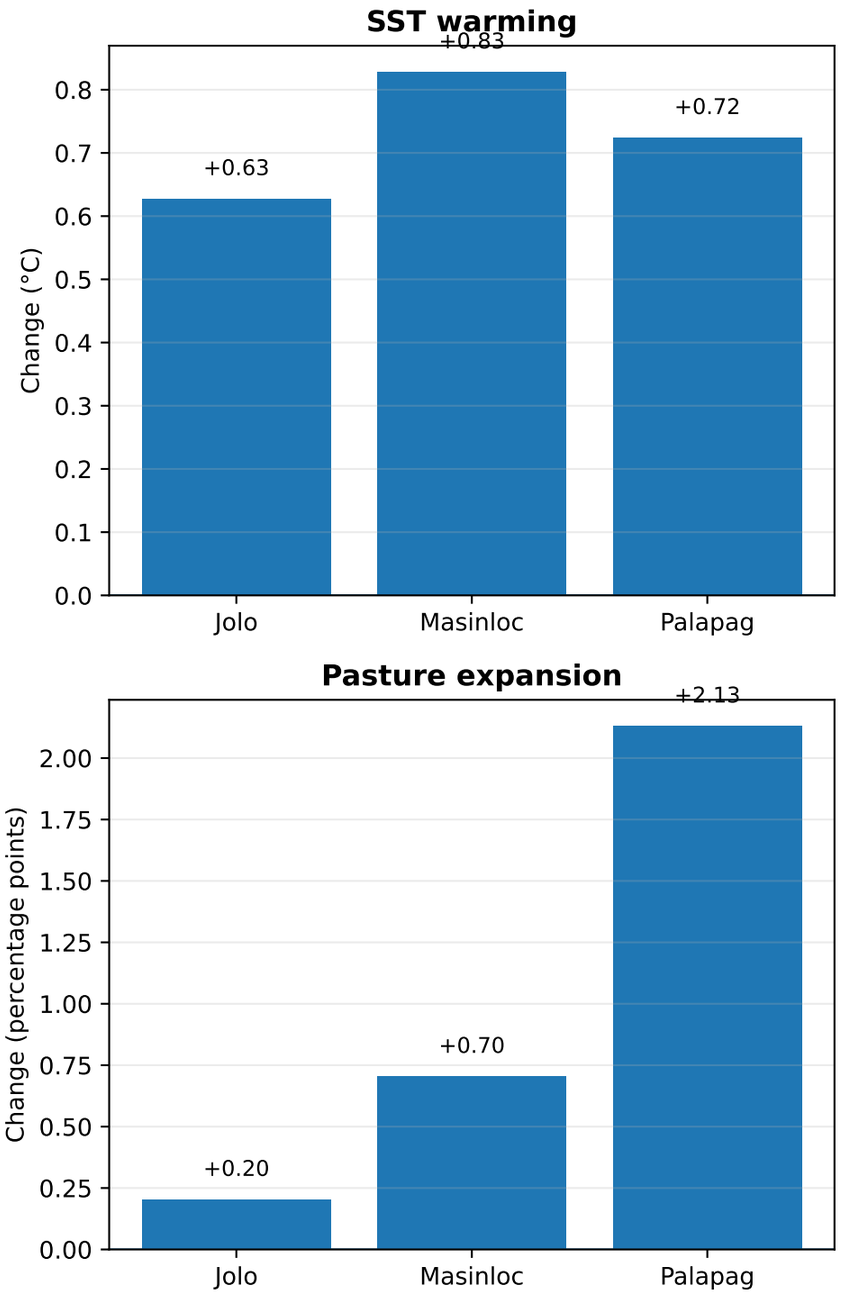
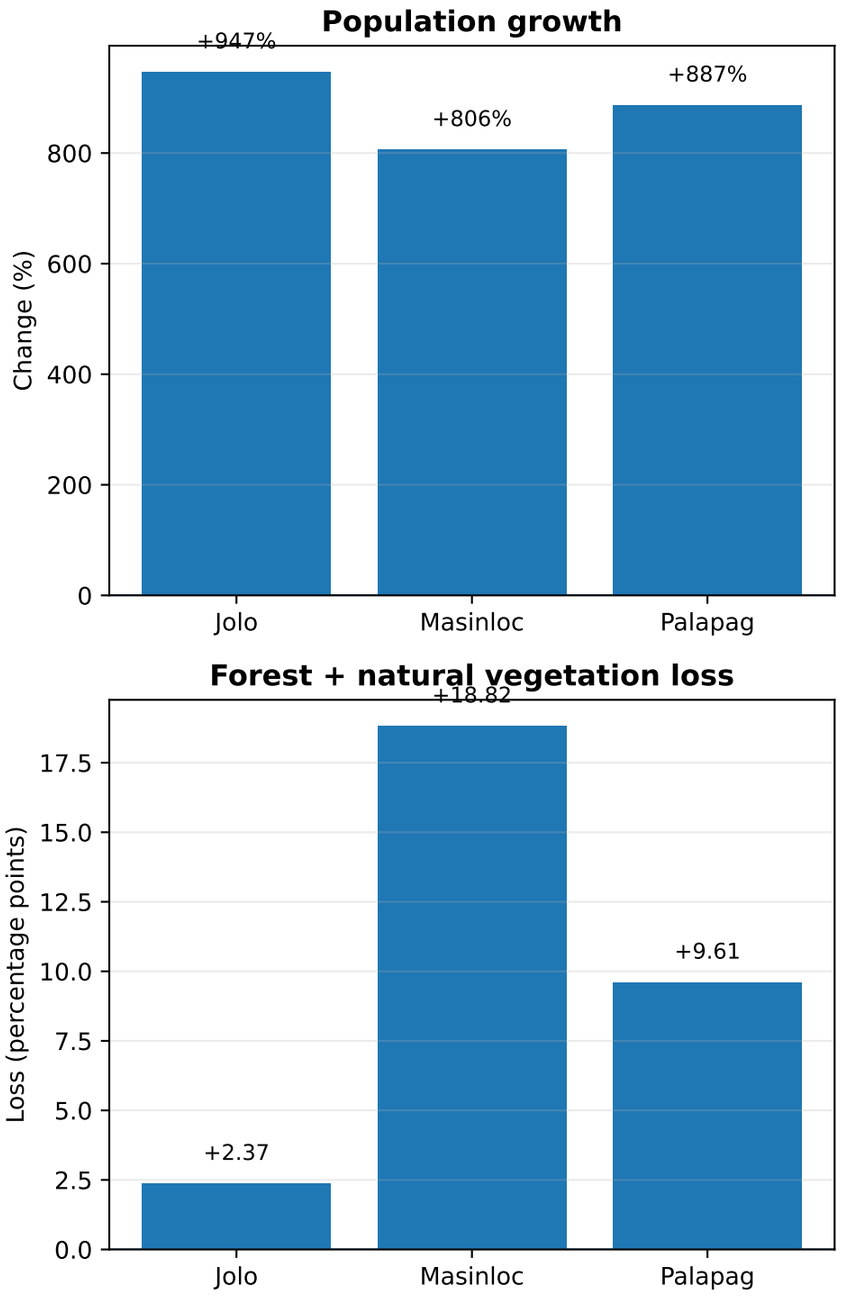
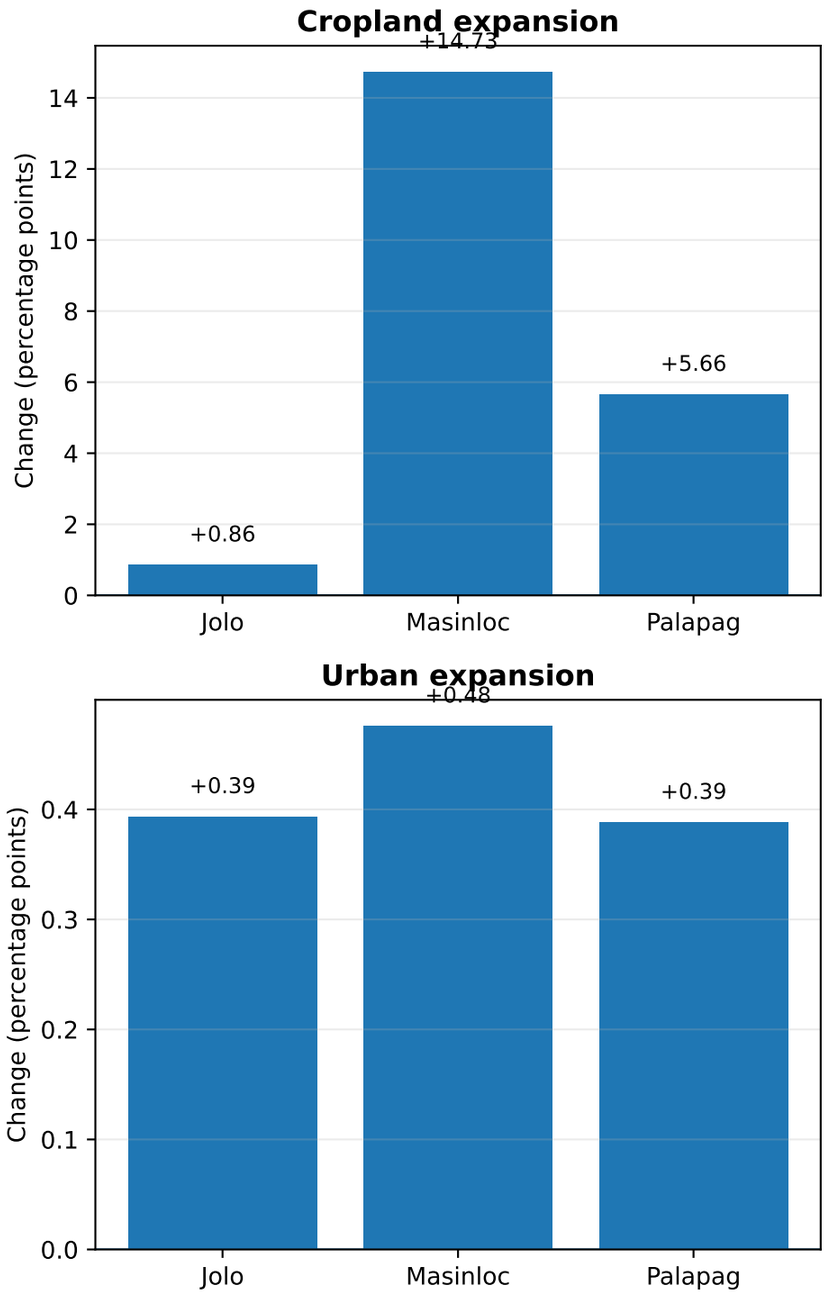
Historical environmental change at Philippine study sites







Change compares 1900–1919 means with 1999–2018 means. Forest values represent loss, so positive values indicate greater forest/natural-vegetation decline. Variables are not combined into a composite pressure index.